

Stolen Valor is subject.

You must not allow political interest groups to mandate First Amendment Rights. Sinclair Broadcasting has the right and moral obligation to air these types of programs. You must not under any circumstances violate these rights given to us as Americans. When this election period is over we must still be free to use our First Amendment Rights, or we follow other cultures into oblivion.